THE JOLLY OLD PEDAGOGUE.

'Twas a jolly old pedagogue, long ago,
Tall and slender, and sallow, and dry;
His form was bent, and his gait was slow,
His long, thin hair was as white as snow;
But a wonderful triumph shone in his eye,
And he sang every night as he went to bed,
"Let us be happy down here below;
The living should live, tho' the dead be dead."
Said the jolly old pedagogue, long ago.

He taught his scholars the rule of three,
Writing and reading, and history too,
Taking the little ones on his knee,
For a kind old heart in his breast had he;
And the wants of the smallest child he knew
"Learn while you're young," he often said,
"There's much to enjoy down here below;
Life for the living and rest for the dead,"
Said the jolly old pedagogue, long ago.

With stupidist boys he was kind and cool,
Speaking only in gentlest tones;
The rod was scarcely known in his school;
Whipping, to him, was a barbarous rule,
And too hard work for his poor old bones;
"Besides, it was painful," he sometimes said,
"We should make life pleasant here below,
The living need charity more than the dead,"
Said the jolly old pedagogue, long ago.

He lived in a house by the hawthorn lane,
With roses and woodbine over the door;
His rooms were quiet, and neat and plain,
But a spirit of comfort there held reign,
And made him forget he was old and poor:
"I need so little," he often said,
"And my friends and relatives here below
Won't litigate over me when I'm dead,"
Said the jolly old pedagogue, long ago.

But the most pleasant times he had of all,
Were the sociable hours he used to pass,
With his chair tipped back to a neighbor's wall,
Making an unceremonious call,
Over a pipe and a friendly glass—
This was the sweetest pleasure, he said,
"Of the many I share down here below;
Who has no cronies had better be dead,"
Said the jolly old pedagogue, long ago.

The jolly old pedagogue's wrinkled face
Melted all over in sunshiny smiles;—
He stirred his glass with an old-school grace,
Chuckled, and sipped, and prattled apace.
Till the house grew merry from cellar to tiles
"I'm a pretty old man," he gently said,
"I've lingered a long while here below,
But my heart is fresh, if my youth has fled."
Said this jolly old pedagogue, long ago.

He smoked his pipe in the balmy air,
Every night when the sun went down;
While the soft wind played in his silvery hair,
Leaving its tenderest kisses there
On the jolly old pedagogue's jolly old crown
And feeling the kisses, he smiled and said:
"'Tis a glorious world down here below;
Why wait for happiness till we are dead?"
Said the jolly old pedagogue, long ago.

He sat at his door, one mid summer night,
After the sun had sunk in the west,
And the lingering beams of golden light
Made his kindly old face look warm and bright
While the odorous night-wind whispered—
"Rest!"
Gently, gently he bowed his head * * *
There were angels waiting for him, I know;
He was sure of happiness, living or dead,
This jolly old pedagogue, long ago.

LAW AND ORDER.

Reno is in a state of fear and trembling. Property owners feel that their earthly possessions are in danger, and law-abiding citizens are holding themselves in readiness to risk life in preserving the peace. This is surely a sad and unnecessary state of affairs, and, while resolving to suppress any riotous demonstration, it will be well to learn what made it necessary for this peaceful town to take arms and her citizens to become special policemen for protection against their neighbors.

The trouble has originated with the Workingmen's party. Not in the fact that many honest laborers felt that they should protect themselves, their interests and occupations, for that was right. The laborer is the main stay and glory of a republic. He should be an active citizen, but his activity should be in protecting old laws, equal to his zeal in making new ones. The trouble with this organization was threefold:

First, it was gotten up by parties who had nothing else to do. It was the work of an idle moment, and such works are never very fruitful of good. Those who assumed the leadership and wanted to manage the matter were not workingmen, some of them not good citizens; the result was, therefore, not good for the town or the workingmen. In the second place, the organization was made for political purposes and to compass certain ends without regard to the workingman or his interests. One by one the intents of the leaders has been discovered and they have been in quick succession ignominiously fired out. In the third place, the honest workingmen who went there to redress a wrong have, for the most part, withdrawn, leaving behind them a collection of irresponsible and mischievous would-be ward politicians. These men merely want the strength of numbers in order to carry out their lawless interests. As a consequence, the ever-ready tramp is offering his aid. Sheriff Lamb testifies that at the incendiary meeting Sunday night he noted a large number of tramps. These characters are, of course, ready for anything, and we do not believe that one honest workingman endorses their action. We do believe that some pretended laborers—who are in reality worthless scamps—do endorse the movement, and we regard them as public enemies. There is no use in mincing matters with law-breakers. It is a physical and legal impossibility for these men to drive any one out of this or any other community, because the entire force of the United States would prevent it. These men know this, but are still willing to imperil the peace and safety of this community by their idiocies on the subject of force. Now, then, if any of the so-called workingmen persist in this matter, they know the punishment which they court, and we hope they may get it. If they are not responsible for the incendiary and riotous feeling which is abroad, let them declare it. If tramps are to make our laws or correct them by force, the citizens will help them. If demented politicians and worthless loafers are to arrange matters for tax-payers, let us find it out and lend them needed assistance. And above all, taxpayers ought to know whether the parasites of this community are going to trifle with its peace and quiet at will.

We are not blaming any man for wanting to better his position or get rid of the Chinese. It is plain, however, that force will better nothing, that this community can not afford to trifle with law-breakers. The men who continue in this riotous spirit and stimulate it are no better than criminals, and should be treated as such. The GAZETTE declares itself as opposed utterly and at all events to the loafing scoundrels who are directly encouraging every ruffian, incendiary and thief in our midst. We shall publish the name and fame of any workingman who after this writing countenances and encourages violence. We advise all citizens to shun and watch such men as dangerous to the public peace and safety of life.

Robert G. Ingersoll and family have gone to Europe.

MICHAEL REESE.

Michael Reese, a soulless miser, has found life in his death. The money which in life he wrung from his fellow-man, in death he returns to men and the children of men in noble bequests. We have read of a soldier who deserted his post, and when captured was rightly an object of scorn with every loyal comrade. He awaited death, as he had merited it, but craved that he might be allowed to fight once more in the morrow's battle. The morning came and with it the assault. The doomed man with his comrades went where the tide of battle rolled most fiercely. Finally there was but a fragment of the brave band left; another volley, and they too were down. Not so the colors, however, for there they were floating as proudly as ever. With reinforcements the battle rolled back again, the lost ground was regained, and there a victorious reserve found the regimental flag firmly planted in the green earth. Beneath it was a dead man with an empty musket by his side. In his life disloyal, in death he earned forgiveness.

It seems to us that in some way this symbolizes the life of Michael Reese. Living he was not loyal to his kind, cared for nothing but gain, formed no ties with the world, and earned the title of miser. Dying he has put away suffering from the pauper, and given food to the orphan, and now the career which often brightened upon the hardships of others is suddenly transformed into a public benefaction. This surely is the power of wealth, and the reward of a life. The years will come and go as of old, and when the reader is laid at rest and forgotten, Michal Reese's charity will live and be ever fresh and green, for it is planted in the hearts of widows and orphans. In his life he was a miser; in death the flag of humanity waves over him and beneath lies a philanthropist.

THE RICARD CASE.

The report of an adjourned meeting of the County Commissioners appears in our local columns. It will be seen that the GAZETTE's opinion and advice has been strictly followed. We have been directly sustained and Judge Wright strongly rebuked for his presumption in attempting to give away the people's money. The GAZETTE has complained of many other assaults, covert and open, upon the county treasury, and believes that it is right and with the people as in this case. We shall not hesitate to bring Judge Wright, or any one else down, when they attempt too high a flight, and will leave to others the neutral position because it is impossible for any journal to serve the people in that role.

PREVENTION.

We have considered it a duty of the GAZETTE to discourage the silly attemps at riot which several scamps have induced a few honest men to approve. We have hoped, also, that the matter might pass off without any necessity of punishing the originators of the foolish scheme. The property and peace of this community is at stake, however, and if these men make another step in the direction of riot, they should be arrested and held accountable for their acts. The plain words of the law appear in another column, and the interests of the community demand that the laws shall be enforced. The time for temporizing has past, and this idiocy should be stopped.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Post complains that there is a tribe of blackmailers belonging to the press of San Francisco, from whose vile assaults it is impossible to protect the great and good of that city. It is very generous of the Post thus to come to the rescue of the great and good, and the great and good must feel very grateful for such unexpected help coming from an entire stranger.

The Nye County Republican Committee has appointed the following delegates to the State Convention: J. W. Frakes and W. W. Bausman of Tybo, J. J. Falkingham and Ben. Curler of Belmont, and Pat. Downie of Downieville. The delegation was instructed to support General E. P. Connor for Governor. So Connor seems to be fairly under way. Next?

Considerable concern is manifested by the bloated monarchical powers of Europe at the hostility displayed toward them by the San Francisco Chronicle. The verdict of the universe, however, must be that it serves them right, for they know well enough Charles De Young was in Paris when the Congress met, and yet they never invited him to come on to Berlin.

We heard the Footlight say the other day that the jury system, as daily illustrated in this county, is one of the most unique farces ever produced by a "hybred civilivation." Our imagination climbed with much trouble up to the "unique farce" plateau, and from there scoured the historical heavens with a field glass. No such thing as a "hybred civilivation" was discovered.

LAW OF THE LAND.

For the Benefit of Tramps, Incendiaries and Loafers.

We deem it well to warn the parties who have threatened to drive out the Chinese that any conspiracy or act in that direction is a very serious offense under the laws of the United States. Article 6 of the Burlingame Treaty guarantees that,

"Chinese subjects, visiting or residing in the United States, shall enjoy the same privileges, immunities and exemptions in respect to travel or residence, as may then be enjoyed by the citizens or subjects of the most favored nation."

Section 5519 Revised Statutes of the laws of 1871 provides that "if two or more persons in any State or Territory conspire * * * * for the purpose of depriving, either directly or indirectly, any person or class of persons of the equal protection of the laws, or of equal privileges or immunities under the laws, * * * * shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, or by imprisonment with or without hard labor, not less than six months nor more than six years, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

The treaty is the law of the land, and the Government is bound to protect these Chinese with all its power, civil and military. Perhaps a warning may avert trouble. If it does not in the face of such a clear and final statement of the case, we are encouraged to hope that the rioters will get a belly full of insurrection before the end is reached.

A Border Ruffian.

A gentleman of the highest respectability, whose name, were it mentioned, would be a sufficient guaranty of the truth of any statement he might make, called at this office this morning and stated that the business manager of the GAZETTE, Mr. L. S. Burchard, is behaving in the most disgraceful manner in the neighborhood of Webber lake. It will be remembered that on Saturday last it was stated in these columns that Mr. B. had joined a party of ladies and gentlemen for a camping trip to the lakes. It appears that Mr. Burchard is mounted on a pure Arabian steed, and careers over the country with a double-barreled shot-gun, assassinating harmless birds and beasts, and terrifying the passengers in stage coaches with his war-like appearance and truculent manner of speech. The GAZETTE desires it to be distinctly understood that it will not be responsible for any murders that may be committed in the vicinity of Webber.

Fun at Steamboat.

At Steamboat Springs next Sunday Messrs. Bishop, James and Schoeneman, of Virginia, will engage in a pigeon shooting match for a purse of $150. There will also probably be a match between from seven to ten gentlemen, twelve dozen birds to be slaughtered. Steamboat is a jolly place to go to. John Rapp knows how to treat his visitors well, and does his level best to give them a good time—and always succeeds.

JUDGE WRIGHT.

The "Gazette" Sustained by the County Commissioners.

A SEVERE BUT MERITED REBUKE

His Honor's Order for the Payment of the Ricard Jvry Fees Countermanded—Some Plain Talk in the Board.

The Board of County Commissioners held an adjourned meeting to-day, Mr. Hymers in the chair.

Auditor Williams appeared before the Board and stated that he was in considerable doubt as to the course he should take in reference to the certificates for jury fees.

District Attorney Cain stated in reply to inquiries from the members of the Board, that there was no law authorizing the District Judge to order the issue of certificates for jurors' fees. In the matter of the fees of the jurors in the Ricard case Mr. Cain suggested that to save them from loss they might assign their claims to the County Commissioners, and that the Commissioners could then bring suit against General Clarke, the counsel for Ricard, who was responsible for the fees.

Mr. Hymers said that if the Commissioners had any jurisdiction in the premises, the county should not pay one cent of the money.

The District Attyrney read the law of 1871 allowing the Auditor to pay jurors' fees on a certificate from the County Clerk on the order of the Court. That law had been repealed in 1873. If there was no money in the Jury Fund (which there is not) they must be paid from the General Fund. The only way to reach the General Fund is through the County Commissioners.

Commissioner Hymers observed that he couldn't see why the whole difficulty might not be settled by making an order obliging jurors to present claims to the Board like any other creditors of the county.

There followed considerable discussion on the effect such an order would have upon the value of the juror's claims. Commissioner Ross suggesting that the jurors from a distance would be obliged to sell their claims at a great discount.

Mr. Hymers was not in favor of making any class of men preferred creditors. He knew that a claim against the county was as good as gold and he didn't think the jurors would lose much. They could get informal certificates from the County Clerk, and could easily sell them.

Mr. Ross said that if they could make an order that would reach the civil cases he would be in favor of it. He didn't propose that the county should pay an individual debt.

Mr. Cain observed that so far as the Ricard jurors were concerned they could sue Clark.

Upon further discussion it was proposed to make an order excluding only the Ricard certificates, and wait for the next legislature to straighten out the law before taking general action.

Some curiosity was expressed to know just how Judge Wright had come to issue such an extraordinary order. Commissioner Hymers stated that he was present in the office of the County Clerk when Judge Wright had issued his mandate. He said: "Mr. Clerk, you will finish up the business of the term. Issue certificates to the jurors." No mention was made of the Ricard case in particular.

Upon fully talking over the matter the Board decided to break up the illegal business altogether, and unanimously adopted the following:

Ordered that the County Clerk specify on the jury certificates hereafter to be issued to jurors the amount that is due them in the case of Ricard vs. C. P. R. R. And it appearing to the Board of County Commissioners that the mode of auditing jury fees by the County Auditor heretofore practiced before the same have been passed upon and allowed, is illegal, it is further ordered that the County Auditor be requested not to audit any further bill against the county for jurors' fees until the same shall have been examined and passed upon by the Board of County Commissioners.

BILLS ALLOWED.

The Board allowed the following bills in addition to those named in yesterday's GAZETTE;

S. Bishop, county physician	$ 50 00
S. Bishop, for road work and blacksmithing	9 75
L. H. Martin, building road	38 00
D. D. Bowen, hos. steward	191 00
Wm. Cain, District Attorney fees	20 00
S. Beamer, road work	25 00
Geo. Cutting, 1 cord wood	7 00
Reno Gas Co., gas for courthouse	10 20
Chas. Johnston, taking patients to hospital	5 00
E. A. Vesey, board prisoners	102 96
J. B. Williams, Auditor fees	65 75
A. L. Bancroft & Co., stationery	50 00
Chas. Knust, stationery	11 75
Sanders & Neal, burying indigent dead	50 00
Aleson Dawson, examining insane	5 00
Wm. Bergman, examining insane	5 00
N. Soderberg, writing up evidence in Ah Chouey case	50 00

The report of the Road Supervisor and District Attorney on Front street was submitted, showing that a number of parties had encroached some twenty feet on the roadway. Laid over for further consideration.

The Commissioners decided to visit the county hospital, and had not finished their tour of inspection at the hour of going to press.

WORKINGMAN WELLMAN.

How he Scared the Folks on Monday Evening.

Mr. Wellman, who is a Workingman, appears to be a very formidable and bloodthirsty person, although also noted for piety. Last evening about half past 8 o'clock, the toiler in question was conversing with a gentleman in the postoffice when he suddenly startled not only everybody present, but attracted the attention of passers-by on the sidewalk by breaking out into excited oratory. Mere type can't do justice to the noble stump style of Workingman Wellman. "I tell you, gentlemen," he roared, "I am tired of the Chinese, tired of their heathenism. I came to this country a poor man; but all I have saved I am willing to to sacrifice, nay, and my life too, and leave my wife and child, whom I love as dearly as any man, if I can help to rid my country of the Chinese. Why we tolerate a system that is worse a hundred times than African slavery, which deluged the land with graves yet dripping with gore and spent millions of treasury. I'm willing to die to free the Pacific coast of this curse!"

Nobody fled.

WORKINGMAN WHITE.

Reasons for His Retinence.

Knowing that Mr. White, of labor fame, was an important authority upon national and international questions to a large extent, we interviewed him yesterday—knowing that he did not represent the workingmen, we still hoped to elicit some information which would set the law-abiding laborers right before the people. Mr. White smiled a serene smile at the reporter's approach, and playfully dallied with his jack-knife expectant of the journalistic assault.

"Mr. White, how is this proposition to drive John out?"

Mr. White (energetically). —"The Union (?) does not countenance it at all."

Reporter.—"Who does?

Mr. White.—"That I can't tell you."

R.—"Were you not there?"

W.—"Yes; I was."

Sheriff Lamb here interposed.—"Didn't you pass a resolution that the Chinaman would be removed by force unless he was gone in forty-eight hours?"

W. (with great emphasis)—Well, I thought that was a motion. I didn't hear of any resolution."

R.—Well, that's all the same. Did you vote for it?"

W.—"That I will not tell you, whether I did or didn't."

The reporter pressed the question on the score that it ought to be answered, when the gallant laborer became himself agitated and said he was not afraid. He also said it was impertinent to ask him such questions. The reporter, failing to see where a would-be rioter could complain of impertinence, urged an answer, when Mr. White was led away by Col. Richardson and the inthrview ended, to Mr. White's delight.

Thinging there was some reason for the laborer's reticence, the GAZETTE has made inquiries and gives the following: Mr. White was at the meeting and voted for the motion. He also shared with Wellman the applause of the numerous tramps who formed the body of the audience. Mr. White also declared in a loud voice that he "would pay his own expenses to White's canyon" in order that the scheme should be perfected. Mr. White did not pay his expenses, nor did he go, probably for the same reason that he yesterday refused to explain or acknowledge his own actions of a day previous.

"CANTY" HEARD FROM.

Rono's Particular Pest Bound for California.

William Saulsbury, otherwise "Canty," the man who shot the Chinaman, beat the Chinawoman brutally with his pistol and, as is generall believed, fired Chinatown on Saturday night last, has been heard from. A GAZETTE reporter was informed to-day by several reputable citizens that John Fitch, the well-known stock man of Janesville, Lassen county, California, while on his way hither yesterday on horseback met Canty afoot on the Sierra Valley road. The desperado told Mr. Fitch about the Reno fire, and coolly added that it would not be the last of the big blazes to which this town would be treated within a few weeks. None of our town or county officers are on his track. The officials of the surrouncing town have been written to by Sheriff Lamb, and furnished with a written description of the one-armed terror, and it is hoped that he will be caught, landed in jail and brought back in perfect safety.

—L. E. Doan, of Boca, was in town last evening and passed on to the beer settlement.

RENO AROUSED.

The Respectable Citizens Organize in the Interest of Public Safety.

Last evening over a hundred of the best citizens of Reno met at the Dirtrict court-room. There had been no public announcement, but the conduct of the so-called "Workingmen" in notifying the Chinamen that they must either leave town peaceably or they would be forced to do so, roused the business men and other respectable members of the community to a sense of their duty, and that notification that a meeting would be held was given around quietly. Upon the meeting being called to order, the situation was thoroughly discussed. The prevalent belief was that there was more to bef eared from incendiarism than riot, as it could not be believed that any man who had his living to earn in Washoe county would lend a hand in an open row. Several present reported conversations they had had during the day with leaders of the Workingmen's party, and they had disclaimed any sympathy with the outrageous talk at the Sunday night gathering. On the other hand, gentlemen quoted language from these very same fellows which showed them to be in full accord with Messrs. Wellman and White. It was feared that tramps, hearing of the threatened ruction would gather in from all quarters, and do their best to help keep up the excitement by violence and fire. Finally the meeting elected a Captain, districted the town and appointed lieutenants. Other important plans for concert of action were agreed upon, and the meeting adjourned. The town is now thsroughly patrolled at night, and it will go hard with any workingman found toiling as a fire-bug.

JOTTINGS.

— The Reno Daily Record made its appearance last evening. It is Democratic in politics, and quite neat and newsy.

— R. P. Ferguson "old shingles and sich" was in town to-day. Looks well and handsome does Ferg. Also robustious.

— Workingman Wellman was one of the incendiary emesaries to White's canyon to stir up the woodchoppers to join in a riot in Reno.

— Martin Sanders announced himself yesterday as a Democratic candidate for Canstable of Reno township. Everybody knows Martin, and they also know that there are worse men in the world than this new candidate.

Hon. Charles Kent, of Nevada City, is in town. He is over here on a visit of business and pleasure combined. When he leaves he will drive home 400 head of cattle which are now over in Jones' valley.

Burning out Chinese.

The Enterprise of the 5th says: There was a gentleman in Virginia this morning from Reno. He insisted that the destruction of the Chinese quarters in that place by fire Saturday night was part of a plan which had been adopted by those interested in cleaning out the hordes of Mongolians all over the coast. He said the fire was helped along and held in control at the edge of Chinatown by allies of those who set the fires. He said, moreover, that parties would be in Virginia to-night to ask aid of sympathizers to keep the Chinese from re-occupying the burnt district. The man refused to give his name or those of the persons asking aid, or the kind of aid wanted.

For Justice.

Wm. H. Young announces himself as a candidate for Justice of Reno township. Mr. Young is an old Nevadan, and has served during the past two years as deputy Sheriff.

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe. The State of Nevada sends to Sarah J. Smith, Greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by A. A. Smith as plaintiff, in the District Court of the Second Judicial District, in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons, (exclusive of the day of service) if served in said County, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to obtain a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between you and plaintiff, who alleges a marriage between you and him in September, A. D. 1872; that ever since you and he have been, and now are, husband and wife; that on the 31st day of March, A. D. 1877, you, the defendant, without cause and against his will, wilfully deserted and abandoned him, and ever since have continued to so desert and abandon him; that there is no common property, and are no children living of the issue of said marriage. Plaintiff alleges that he is now, and for six months next preceding the commencement of this action has been a resident of the County of Washoe and State of Nevada, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said county.

And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

(seal) IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, P. B. COMSTOCK, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this 14th day of May, A. D. 1878.

P. B. COMSTOCK,
Clerk of the District Court of the Second Judicial District, Nevada, in and for Washoe county.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical Institute.

209, KEARNEY STREET, SAN FRANCISCO.
Established in 1854,
For the Permanent Cure of all Special and Chronic Diseases, as also all Female Complaints and Diseases of the Nervous System.

THE IMMENSE DESTRUCTION OF human life annually from secret and chronic diseases, caused this old and reliable institution to be established, first in Philadelphia, Penn., in 1850, and afterwards in San Francisco, Cal., in 1854, as a private dispensary, in order to afford the afflicted the best medical and surgical treatment, for the above and all other affections and complaints. Consultation at the Institute, or by letter, FREE

To the Afflicted:

Dr. L. J. Czapkay would most respectfully inform the public of the Pacific coast that, at the earnest solicitation of his numerous friends, and hundreds of those unfortunately afflicted with disease, he has reopened his MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE and resumed the practice of his profession The Doctor would remind all those who are in need of medical aid, that since relinquishing his very extensive and successful practice in San Francisco, he has visited the principal cities in Europe, inspecting diligently the experience of the most learned in the profession, the benefit from which he offers to all in need of his services. Rheumatic affections, chronic catarrh, diseases of the stomach and kidneys, liver complaints, etc., successfully treated. Those who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, physical and mental debility, are assured of a permanent cure. Charges moderate. All communication strictly confidential. Medicines sent by express. Address,

FELLOWS'

Compound Syrup!

OF

HYPOPHOSPHITES.

THIS DISCOVERY

Is the result of a series of Scientific Experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, the nervous system must be made vigorous and healthy."

One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power. This is followed by muscular relaxation, weakness, and emaciation of all the organs which depend upon them for health or involuntary muscular action, the weaker suffering first.

The Inventor, acting upon this idea, that the muscles and nerves depend upon each other for efficient strength and action, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, became convinced, after months of experiment, that no other preparation produced such potent and direct effects upon the nervous system as his

and except in cases of actual organic loss, that it would restore patients suffering from those maladies.

Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:—

Chronic Constipation,
Chronic Dyspepsia,
Asthma,
Chronic Bronchitis,
Consumption,
Chronic Diarrhœa,
Chronic Laryngitis,
Melancholy,
Nervous Debility.

Debility, resulting from Typhoid and other low fevers, Diphtheritic Prostration, Hysteria, Hypochondria, Nervous Excitability, Marasmus or Wasting of the Muscles, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Sluggishness of the Liver, Interrupted and Feeble Action of the Heart, SUFFOCATING FEELINGS caused by mucous obstruction of the Lungs and Air Passages leading thereto, and Debility from various causes.

Indigestiveness and habitual Costiveness almost always arise from weakness of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels. In such cases, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the greatest service by inducing healthy peristaltic action of the intestines. The evacuations soon become copious and healthy, without producing the effect of purgative medicine.

Weakness of the JOINTS and MUSCLES, IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, and INWARD WASTINGS may be cured by attention to the regular described doses, and by due regard to the habits of life.

FELLOWS'

Compound Syrup of Hopophosphites

The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced, and the large sale is the best guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public

This syrup will cure PULMONARY CONSUMPTION in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life in the third. It will cure ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, LARYNGITIS and COUGHS. It will cure all diseases originating from want of MUSCULAR ACTION and NERVOUS FORCE.

☞ Sold by all Druggists.

CONSUMPTION

Positively Cured.

All sufferers from this disease that are anxious to be cured should try Dr. Kissner's Celebrated Consumptive Powders. These Powders are the only preparation known that will cure Consumption and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs—indeed, so strong is our faith in them, and also to convince you that they are no humbug, we will forward to every sufferer, by mail, post paid, a free Trial Box.

We don't want your money until you are perfectly satisfied of their curative powers. If your life is worth saving, don't delay in giving these Powders a trial, as they will surely cure you.
